PMJA 2023 SESSION PROPOSAL QUESTIONS

Session title - A short headline description of your session

Keywords - Provide up to 3 words that you think characterize your proposal. Examples: editing, equity, planning

Session type - Choose the format that you think is best suited for your session

- 20 minute breakout - a quick talk offering insights and practical tips
- 60 minute breakout - a blend of interaction, lecture-based instruction, case studies, and peer learning
- 75 minute breakout - engaging presentations or panels designed to develop essential skills through presentation and dialogue.
- Keynote/General session - big ideas, trending perspectives, sharing unique experiences, knowledge, and ideas.
- Pre-conference workshop - 4-6 hour interactive workshops focused on collaborative learning
- Peer or Affinity group - roundtable gathering for thoughtful conversation while sharing ideas, information, and experiences
- Networking - one-to-one opportunities, small meetings, technology shares or some idea we’ve not even considered
- Other:

Learning level - Help attendees understand if your session is right for them.

- Foundational: focus on awareness and factual recall; appropriate for those with limited experience of the subject area seeking introductory understanding.
- Applied: focus on understanding and comprehension; appropriate for those with some experience seeking to build on, apply, or enhance existing knowledge using content in practical applications to master concepts.
- Strategic: focus on application and implementation of highly technical, detailed or big-idea topics; appropriate for those seeking the most up-to-date information to heighten expertise.

Audience - Who will benefit the most from your session? Select up to 3.

- Senior management & leadership
- News Directors
- Editors
- Hosts
- Podcasters
- Reporters
- Producers
Session description

Describe your session and briefly state the importance, relevance, value, uniqueness, and/or interest to our community of public media journalists and professionals. Be sure to describe how the session will unfold, the key learning objectives, and findings or points you will present. Let us know if/how you plan to use audio (we like that a lot).

This will be the basis of the published description if your proposal is selected. (1500 character maximum)

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion content

PMJA works for greater diversity, equity and inclusion throughout public media and strives to develop a conference to support that work. How does your proposal embrace diversity of race, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, ethnicity, culture, national origin, physical and mental ability, and all the other fascinating characteristics that make public media and its reporting unique?

Collaborate & Connect - conference theme content

This year’s conference theme is Collaborate & Connect. How does your proposal fit into the theme?

Presenters

Who would likely be presenting? Please include name and affiliations where possible.

PMJA welcomes new voices and encourages participation from new, experienced, academic and student presenters.

Do you think your session is suited for streaming to an online audience? - Not all sessions are made for a virtual audience, so we'll only be streaming certain sessions. Do you think yours should be one of those?

Anything else we need to know that didn't fit in above?
Acknowledgement

• I acknowledge and understand presenters are required to register and pay a discounted rate for the conference by May 15, 2023 and will share this information with any co-presenters. I understand PMJA does not reimburse conference presenters for travel or hotel expenses.

• I understand presenters are responsible for providing any materials they plan to use or distribute in their presentation in digital format for distribution in the conference app.

• I understand session recordings will be released to PMJA conference attendees and members following the conference. Authors retain copyright, but grant nonexclusive publication rights to the conference.